4 Although there are no general rules regarding the supply of clothing w menials attached w Muzrai Chattrams in the State & also outside Mysore, still considering the importance of H. H. the Maharaja's Chattram at Tirupati and the fact that the menials attached thereto come in close contact with respectable persons resorting to that Chattram, it has been usual to sanction a small sum of Rs 35 towards the cost of supplying clothing to the menials of that institution as a special case. A lump sum of Rs 35 has been sanctioned subject to adjustment on receipt of details of expenditure. Many a reply as above be sent to the Comptr Genl?

7 Probably the Comptr means that the menials of the Govt Offices are allowed clothing at Govt expense according to a certain fixed scale for each class of Govt servants & so the cost incurred is amenable to audit in the financial dept - but in the case of these mere institutions a lump sum grant for free clothing is sanctioned and the details are not available for proper financial check being exercised on the charge -

There does not appear to be any necessity for elaborate rules about paying supply of clothing to Peons or other Menial Servants of the Government. The question depends upon the occasion and upon the amount of money available. It would be enough if a voucher or receipt is obtained from the Peon has been, as observed from the Peshkar's report, made on no fixed principle hitherto in the scale sanctd in G.O. No. G. 6787-819/8m. 36-07-39 dd 16.5.08. The only principle which seems to have guided the supply, appears to be No. 1 in para 4 of the above order viz "that as a rule only menials in "constant attendance on Gazetted Officers "or in frequent & close contact with the "respectable public, should be provided "with white clothing". It would probably be difficult to adopt, as required by the Comptr, the scale as laid down in the Govt order cited above in the case of the Tirupati Charities where the change is met from the Funds savings thereof. The practice of giving these Servants clothing has been in vogue since 1904 bi-annually; and in the case of this Special institution, this special practice at a cost of Rs not Exceeding Rs 35 once in two years may, it is submd, be allowed, a receipt only being obtd for financial purposes.
